

Please don't allow any changes to the no call law. I like it the way it is. The banks and whoever else that wants to get in touch with me can mail me something to read. I like it the way it is. If you let one industry in then others will follow and before long we will have never even had a no call law at all.